to-day. The Great Northern Hotel, one of Chicago's largest hostelries, was cut off for the big packers. This pressure had been threatened by the strikers, and the hotel at once canceled its contract with the big interests and will obtain its supply through minor packers who have to solve the strike question and bring a speedy settlement. To-day Frederick W Job, chairman of the Illinois State Board of Arbitration, was in conference with Secretary W. L. Turley, of the Teamsters' Union, for over an hour, preparatory to bringing the teamsters and both the packing interests and the State street department store, whose drivers are dissatisfied, into an amicable agreement. Mr. Job intimated that he had already interviewed the packers who are holding out against the union and said: "We of the Board of power to bring about a settlement between the contending forces. I have talked over the questions at issue with parties interested and I am hopeful of good results."

The position of meat consumers is muc easier to-day. For a time, at least, a me famine is removed. The strikers are doing all in their power to induce the packe who refuse to come to their terms, b many of the eating houses and marke are getting their supply from independe slaughtering plants that are on a goo footing with the union. Although the co air supply at Fulton market has been o off from the stores of the big packer some twenty independent wholesale ma kets are ready to furnish meat to reta butchers and restaurants. At the brance houses of the big packers business to-di was almost at a standstill. A few ma kets and restaurants that were not afra of having their ice supply cut off, ser wagons for supplies. Some big consume are stocked well with ice and meat a are doing nothing pending a settlement the strike. Host of the consumers are e ing a supply from independent houses.

KOERNER'S GOOD SHOWING

duty. George Froehling, a butcher, was MADE GOOD IMPRESSION IN HIS BOUT WITH "KID" BLACKBURN.

> ford, Who Forfeited-"Kid" Brune Got Decision Over Clark.

While "Kid" Bradford, of Chicago, forfeited his money for appearance and left town without fulfilling his agreement to meet "Kid" Blackburn at the Empire Theater last evening, the crowd was well satisfled with the exhibition of boxing that was given. George Koerner, a very clever Indianapolis boxer, was substituted in place count of himself, considering that he had CHICAGO, June 2.- The most serious, no training whatever for the contest. Nearly every person in the house believed that had Koerner been in half the condition that Blackburn was he would have been able to easily defeat the colored man. The bout went six rounds, and it was give and take throughout, Blackburn going to the floor several times, but coming up strong because of his superb condition. Koerner did not have the wind to carry him through, and in the fifth and sixth rounds it was seen that his blows lacked steam. At the end of the sixth round Captain Kruger, to prevent what might have been a knockout, stopped the contest and Referee Marx declared the bout a draw on this account.

In the first part of the battle Koerner had the best of it, but his lack of condition weakened him, and Blackburn, who was in perfect shape, played on the white lad's wind and soon weakened him. The showing of Blackburn against a man who has had but little ring experience and no training was very disappointing to his friends. Those who believed he had chances of going to the front were given evidence that he is not as clever or as hard a hitter as he has been "cracked up" to be. There was probably not one man in the house outside the Blackburn brothers who believed the "Kid" would stand a ghost of a show against Koerner if the latter would meet him when both were in good condition. The sentiment seemed to be that Blackburn has been much overrated and

"HOLD-UP" TACTICS. The delay before the main bout was caused by the "hold-up" tactics employed by "Kid" Blackburn and his brother Fred, who sails under the title of manager of the "Kid's" affairs. Articles of agreement stipulated that the men were to receive a certain purse, but Blackburn insisted on receiving an extra $25 because he said that Koerner was slightly heavier than he, but was not willing to concede the seven or eight pounds difference for Koerner's lack of ring experience and the fact that he had not trained for the contest. Jack Cullen was willing to go on with Blackburn in place of Bradford or Koerner, but Blackburn refused to take him on. The management, desiring to keep faith with the crowd, posted the extra $25. There is a samtion from Indianapoils boxing promoters, and it is safe to say that clubs in other the last minute. The preliminaries were the best ever seen at the Empire. The first one, between James Lewis and Howard T. Mayer, was rather tame, and Referee Jack Ryan declared it a draw. The next bout, between "Kid" Brune and Lawrence Clark, went four fast and furious rounds, in which there was some very clever and exciting work. In the first round Clark mixed it up at a lively rate, but Brune improved, and in the fourth he had his man groggy. The decision was given to Brune. The "Kentucky Kid" met Fred Elliott, who was much heavier, but in the fourth the gong saved Elliott and the decision went to the "Kentucky Kid."

Knocked Out Jim Williams in an Ante-Coronation Fight.

LONDON, June 2 .- "Kid" McFadden, of San Francisco, knoceked out "Jem" Williams, of London, at the National Sporting Club to-night in the fight for the bantamweight championship of the world and a purse of £350. This fight was the sharpest five-round contest which has ben seen in London for a long time. A big crowd attended, including Tom Sharkey, Gus Ruhlin and Joe Walcott, the American fighters, and other participants in the pugilistic tournament to be held here in connection with the coronation festivities. McFadden could not get down to the weight, and was allowed to go on at 120 pounds. He forced the fighting from the start, and proved to be much stronger than his opponent. Williams, however, was very clever, and had the best of the third round But the end came suddenly at the close of the fifth, when McFadden landed a half PHILADELPHIA, June 2.-Charley Mc-Keever was practically knocked out by 'Philadelphia" Jack O'Brien to-night in the first round of what was to have been a sixround bout at Industrial Hall. Five seconds before the gong sounded O'Brien landed a right hook on the point of McKeever's jaw and the latter was carried to his corner. He still had five seconds in which to recover, but when time was called for the second round McKeever was unable to respond. The referee declared it a knock-out.

Fought Six Fast Rounds.

PITTSBURG, June 2-Jack McClelland, of this city, and Ole Oleson, of Chicago, fought six fast rounds to a draw at Mc-Kee's Rock to-night. Oleson was the heavier, but the fight was about an even affair. The articles of agreement called for | Dunn, 2. Time, 1:48. Umpires-Emslie and fifteen rounds to a decision, but fear of Cantillon. police interference forced the management to announce that the same rules would prevail to-night in Allegheny county as in Philadelphia county, and the bout could go only six rounds without a decision.

Butler Defeated by the Baptists on Franklin Field.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. FRANKLIN, Ind., June 2.-By defeating the Butler College baseball team this arternoon Franklin College has established its claim to the championship of the secondary colleges of Indiana. The score was 7 to 6. The game was very loosely played at times and inexcusable errors were frequent, although there were a few brilliant plays. Webb fielded his position perfectly at first, making three sensational plays in catching foul flies. Severence and Spears both made star plays in fielding their positions. Anthony played an errorless game at short, accepting two difficult chances, and Dodson's throwing to second was the best ever seen on Franklin Field. The pitching of Rivers was not up to his standard in the first four innings, as he allowed the visitors four bases on balls and three hits. In the last five innings he pitched fine ball, allowing the visitors only two

The first four innings looked decidedly in favor of the visitors. The indifference and lethargy of the Franklin players allowed the visitors to secure five runs, withpart of the Baptists. They woke up in the fifth, however, and were able to make up

Charles Babb was again the guardian angel that led the Indianapolis team to victory yesterday afternoon. With two strikes on him he swung his willow with terrific force in the seventh inning, sending the ball sailing over Flournor's head for a three-base hit. The bases were occupied at the time with three howling Hoosiers who were anxiously awaiting an opportunity to run to the rubber and take the lead over Louisville. The hit did the work, and placed Indianapolis in the lead with a score of 5 to 2. It also furnished the elevator power to hoist Indianapolis again into second place.

The game was a pretty one from start to finish. Kellum was pitted against Louisville, while Kerwin, who did battle against the Hoosiers on Decoration day morning, was assigned to the slab for Louisville, There was not a great abundance of hitting by either team, but the Hoosiers were fortunate in securing their hits at most opportune times. They were bunched nicely, the paper any news of interest to him. the three in the third inning being responsible for two runs, while the three in the seventh gave Indianapolis the winning talout any apparent effort of resistance on the fast. Tilford at second made two errors, news value reflecting nature the present one of which figured in the scoring, but their lost ground by playing good ball. | the rest of the Colonels, especially Schaub, did some work that was of the sensational type. Kuhns and Coulter had several good good game at second.

Kerwin started the Louisville work with a single in the first, but Clymer hit to Babb and a fast double play resulted. Gannon then went out on a foul to Woodruff, who did the receiving work. Hogriever and Kuhns were easily retired in the first inning, but O'Brien found a safe place for two bases. Kihm was passed and Babb got hit, which filled the bases. Coulter had the first chance to do some real work. but he fouled out to Schriver.

HASKELL'S POOR DECISIONS. In the second inning Umpire Haskell tried to hand Louisville a chance to score, but the Hoosiers played ball and prevented any circuit chasing. Tannehill reached first on Babb's error and Flournor forced him at second. Flourner was doubled at first but the umpire would not allow it. Flourner tried to steal second and while little with Boyle's curves to-day. Kelley he was clearly put out Haskell called him ply grew more and more frightened. Pressafe. There was no scoring until the third inning. Kuhns went out to Schriver and O'Brien was passed. Kihm singled to left and on Babb's out O'Brien and Kihm advanced a base. Coulter bounded one along the third base line for a nice single, scoring both men. Fox singled but Woodruff went out. Indianapolis held the lead until the sixth when Louisville scored two and tied the score. Schaub singled but was forced at second by Kerwin. Clymer was hit and Gannon singled, scoring Kerwin. The ball was fielded to the plate and Woodruff threw to second hoping to catch Gannon and Fox dropped the ball, allowing Clymer to score. That was the last time Louisville sent a man around the circuit. Indianapolis won the game in the seventh. Hogriever flew out but Kuhns singled. Til-ford fumbled O'Brien's chance and Kihm hit safely, filling the bags. Babb then hit for three bases scoroing three runs. The next two men went out. A double play in the eighth prevented Indianapolis from scoring. Louisville went out in one, two order in the ninth. The score: Hogriever, rf. 5

LONDON PRESS COMMENT.

Terms of Peace Settlement Generally

Approved by Editors.

LONDON, June 3.-Judging from the opinions thus far given out by public men here and from the editorials in the London newspapers, the terms of peace appear to meet with approval from all sides, but the extremists of both the Jingo and Pro-Boer parties find somehing to cavil at. The Daily Chronicle in its issue this morning remarks: "The close of the war has converted us all to pro-Boerism. England, as bumping and crossing. It is alleged Van a whole, has taken her triumph as she took her disasters; namely, with a sobriety and a discretion which should help our United States. Van Dusen said he was at former enemies over the remaining rough places to lasting friendship."

Though the spirit in which the terms of peace are criticised, and every one recognizes them to be reasonable and generous, the Daily News, a pro-Boer paper, calls it "Peace with reason," and says: "We sin- trains that this road has inaugurated becerely congratulate the government upon a tween Cleveland and St. Louis within a diplomatic achievement, which, in every detall, stands out in solitary contrast to its to life to-day and beat as good a field of past record of blunders and confusion. press. The Daily Chronicle says: "We welcome it as a settlement at once honorable. prudent and generous, which secures to South Africa as a whole conditions of enduring pacification. The Morning Post says: "The state paper which records these negotiations is one which can be read with unmixed satisfaction. The government is to be sincerely congratulated.

The Daily Mail and the Daily Telegraph, which are jingo organs, both express unbounded satisfaction with the peace terms. The former paper only complains that no war tax is to be levied on the conquered territories, "which means," says the Daily Mail, "that the uitlanders who suffered so much will have to pay the bill so far as ! is paid.' Among the Liberal newspapers and politicians a strong idea prevails that at his coronation King Edward will grant some kind of amnesty to the Cape rebels.

NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE. How a Kingstown Paper Treated the

Eruption of La Souffriere. Minneapolis Journal. Nothing will stir the average English colonial paper out of its routine and deliberate methods. A copy of the Times of Kingstown, St. Vincent island, date of May 9, has been received by the Journal, but to the casual glance there is nothing in the paper to indicate that it was published the day after the destructive eruptions of La Souffriere on its own island and Mont Pelee in near-by Martinique. Nevertheless, the paper contains the most important news that has appeared in the island for ninety years-since the last eruption of La Souffriere in 1812. It did not know the full extent of the damage in St. Vincent, but it did know that at least two hundred people had lost their lives, and it gives a good account of the eruption. With an uninforming single line head it begins its account with: "Our readers will remember that as far back as last February we called attention to the fact that," etc. Then follow three columns of description which concludes with the subhead "Latest from Georgetown, 3 p. m." Under this insignificant line it is stated that over two hundred deaths have been reported.

The report of the destruction of St. Pierre is not even given the distinction of any sort The paper might have fallen into the hands of a hasty though interested reader without giving him any idea of the volcanic disasters. Not a single headline indicates death or destruction, and it is only by care fully reading each separate article and item that one may find out whether there is in Our American papers often overdo their headline writing, making them offensive to their readers and depriving them of their

It is possible that his idea of a court was a place where people stop for a few hours on the way to the penitentiary. He was to be a witness in a case which was on hearing, and as the attorneys slammed down their law books on the table and prefaced frequent interruptions by addressing 'Your Honor," the boy's eyes grew still rounder and he slipped lower and lower down into his chair. If half a dozen people had not been between him and the door he probably would have taken to his heels. But the way was barred, and the boy simently it came time for him to testify and Judge Carter stretched a long arm over the bench and pointed straight at him. "Johnny," said the judge, "hold up your

Safe.

The little child is safe from ordinary dangers in the care of the faithful dog. But neither the dog's fidelity, nor the mother's love can guard a child from those invisible foes that lurk in air, water and food-the germs of disease. Children need to be specially watched and cared for. When there is loss of appetite, lassitude and listlessness in a child, an attempt should be made to revive the appetite and rally the spirits. In Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery parents have found an invaluable medicine for children. Its purely vegetable character and absolute freedom from alcohol and narcotics commend it to every thoughtful person. It is pleasant to the taste, unlike the foul oils and their emulsions offered for children's use. "Golden Medical Discovery" makes pure blood and sound flesh, and absolutely eliminates from the system the poisons which feed disease.

Mrs. Ella Gardner, of Waterview, Middleser Co., Va., whose daughter suffered from malarial poisoning and catarrh, writes: "My little laughter is enjoying splendid health. I am glad I found a doctor who could cure my child. She took twelve bottles of the 'Golden Medical Discovery,' eight bottles of 'Pellets,' and one bottle of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and she is well. We thank God for your medicines."

NEGRO'S BOLD THEFT.

gregation Sat Watching.

An unknown negro committed a bold theft last night when he stole a cinematograph from a church while the entire congregathe property of Mack Allen, 515 Indiana avenue. Mr. Allen was using his machine at an entertainment in a colored church on Martindale avenue between Fifteenth and Sixteenth streets. At the close of the machine was resting on a raised platform in the center aisle. Allen and the trustees were much interested in their conference when in walked a large, well-built negro, who picked up the machine raised it above his head and calmly walked out of the church. He was noticed by a great many of the congregation, who thought the man was an assistant of Allen's. They thought the man was taking the machine out to put it in a wagon. Allen did not discover his loss until about ten minutes later, when he looked around. He asked several people about it, and they told him they saw a large negro walk out with the machine. Allen ran to the door, but no trace of the thief could be found. Bicycle Policemen Streit and Losh were called. When they arrived they found an excited group of colored people standing on the church steps. Allen, with other men, were counting tickets. When the police arrived Allen ceased his work and ROME, June 2.- The papal secretary of related the loss of his instrument. He said he had hired no one to assist him in taking away the instrument. He said it was valued at $75. The machine had a large megaphone attachment for concert purposes. Several of the congregation who saw the theft told their side of the story. No one seemed to know who the strange colored man was. They said the easy manner in which he walked up the middle aisle and picked up the machine gave them the opinion that he was working for Allen. A search of the neighborhood was made by the police, and a number of colored members of the church, but no trace of the thief could be found.

KENTUCKY MINERS HERE. They Will Hold a Conference with

Five representatives of the United Mine Workers of Kentucky arrived in the city last night and will hold a conference with Secretary Wilson to-day relative to conditions existing in that State. The purpose of their visit here is withheld, but it is known that conditions over Kentucky generally are not satisfactory, and the conference to-day may have some bearing on the call of a special convention to consider the proposed extension of the anthracite strike into the bituminous region. Kentucky is one of the States likely to be affected by such a strike.
